

12th July 2007.

AAIB report into G-BABB accident

News release from London Southend Airport following AAIB report into G-BABB accident:

'We have read the AAIB report into this tragic accident and we accept the findings listed in the report. Procedures at Southend were reviewed immediately after the accident and we note the report recommendation that similar changes should be made to all airport procedures across the UK'.